Darling Wifie:-

Am very sorry I was so abrupt over the telephone, but the Capt. wanted me to phone the Hospital & as I picked up the receiver, you were on the wire. I couldn't do anything but act as I did. I hope you won't feel offended because the Capt. was standing right at my side so couldn't speak.

I'm on my way to the Hospital now, so won't be able to write much.

How's my pencil? Take good care of yourself & don't forget the good-night kiss.

Lovingly,

Joe
